Aug 2007

The most structured, aromatic, complex, and richest is the 2004 Syrah Reserve Viking Estate Vineyard. Copious quantities of black raspberry jam-like note intermixed with cassis, spring flowers, licorice, and earth emerge from this medium to full-bodied effort. Good freshness and length suggest it will last for 5-6 years. Tel. (805) 239-8980 ; Fax (805) 239-4671

Aug 2007

The medium-bodied, elegant 2004 Syrah Schoolhouse, which is fashioned from various westside Paso Robles vineyards, offers up notes of black olives, plums, currants, and pepper that bring to mind a French Cotes du Rhone. Drink it over the next 2-3 years. Tel. (805) 239-8980 ; Fax (805) 239-4671

Proprietary Red Glenrose Vineyard Add to Print ListRATING: 90 pointsPRODUCER: Adelaida Cellars FROM: Paso Robles , San Luis Obispo, Central Coast, California, USA,

The medium ruby-hued 2004 Version Proprietary Red is a blend of 34% Mourvedre, 22% Syrah, 18% Grenache, 14% Counoise, and 12% Cinsault from the Glenrose Vineyard. This is a complex, dark ruby-hued red displaying a big, sweet nose of spice box, pepper, plums, currants, loamy soil, and leafy vegetation. Lush, round, and nearly opulent, this is

Aug 2007The ripe, medium-bodied 2005 Grenache Blanc/Roussanne (57% and 43% respectively) exhibits excellent aromas of flowers, rosewater, white citrus, and orange rind as well as plenty of richness, acidity, and freshness. Consume it over

Aug 2007I enjoyed the floral-styled 2005 Viognier Glenrose Vineyard's elegance, restraint, and minerality. This medium-bodied effort is not the typical overweight, flabby style of Viognier often found in California.
With a bit more depth, it would have merited an outstanding rating. It should drink well for 2-3 years
